ASTERS

Asters are one of the most important summer and autumn flowers, and for a number of years I have been making exhaustive tests of both home-grown and imported stocks with a view to offering only the choicest kinds, regardless of cost. As a result of this care my list comprises only such sorts as can be planted with confidence that nothing better is procurable as a cut bloom. The collection includes the Early, Mid-Season and Late Varieties of the choicest colors. The number of weeks given to get them in blossom from date of sowing, the height of plants and diameter of blossoms will vary according to condition of soil and skill of the grower. Asters require a very rich, sandy soil, it cannot be made any too rich; and require an abundance of water during growing season. With special cultural skill, the height of plants and the diameter of blossoms will exceed the measurement given.

The following five numbers, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, are in a class by themselves. Superior to all other strains. They consist entirely of the newest, best shaped and handsomest flowers, in form and delicate beauty of coloring. They are unsurpassed for EXHIBITION beds or for FORCING, requiring a night temperature of 40 to 55 degrees. For bedding purposes they are perfectly HARDY, requiring only the protection of a cold frame. The blossoms measure  $2\frac{3}{4}$  inches in diameter, carried erect above the foliage on heavy stems 7 to 8 inches in length, in the most graceful manner. Their unique markings and long stems make these five strains very popular as a cut bloom or for EXHIBITION purposes, and they will be the admiration of all lovers of good Pansies.

The habits of the plants are of robust constitution, compact and free bloomers, and it is the HARDEST strain known; will winter without any protection and stand a temperature of 20 degrees below zero, although a light covering will be beneficial to keep the plants from freezing and thawing, which causes them to heave up. It has a range of 35 colors or markings of the three-and-five-blotched varieties, producing an attractive and well-balanced blend of colors, in light and dark shades; the blossoms measure 3 inches in diameter, of heavy velvety texture.

PUBLIC PARK PANSY SEED COLLECTIONS

Based on forty years' experience in Pansy Culture, I have been requested to arrange a Pansy Seed Collection suitable for Public Parks. The varieties named below are the best that can be bought. They are the product of twelve of the most careful growers of Europe, and the prize winners of the world on all points that represent a First Class Giant Pansy. They will produce blossoms on American soil, measuring 2½ to 3 inches across, with stems 6 to 8 inches in length. Under a favorable climate they will exceed these measurements. It is the Greatest blend of colors ever offered. This collection is sold with a guarantee to be as represented, as each packet contains the names of the growers, allowing you to judge their commercial value. Send for my Special Pansy List for detail descriptions of over 250 varieties, with culture directions and Rules for Judging Pansies. The colors and varieties are as follow:
